11th European Junior OWS Championships – Darica-Kocaeli 2013 SUMMARY

The 5 titles went to 5 different nations

LEN Office (Luxembourg) – The 11th European Junior Open Water Swimming Championships in Darica-Kocaeli (TUR) concluded on Sunday with the fifth and last event, the mixed team time trial won by the Italian team. Italy also took home the Championships Trophy to the best nation in the points ranking considering the five events of the continental title competition for age groups 15-16 (youth) and 17-18 (junior).

The most successful female athletes were German Patricia Wartenberg and Italian Alisia Tettamanzi who both won a gold and silver each. Italian Alberto Brumana won a gold and bronze making him the only multi-medalist among the young male participants.

These LEN OWS Championships took place from July 26th to 28th in the Sea of Marmara in Darica (in the Kocaeli Province of Turkey). A total of 57 men and 58 women from 20 Member Federations of the European Aquatics Federation (LEN) participated in the 11th edition of the European Junior Open Water Swimming Championships in Darica (Kocaeli).
